AAP

1. The Bulgarian Red Cross, with the help of EMCS, has organized three schools for training Bulgarian Youth. Two of these are situated in camps at Varna and Batak and have 800 Red Cross pupils, drawn from the whole of Bulgaria. There is a third school for the Sofia region, with 80 pupils, at a camp in Zemen. The schools are co-educational.
2. Pupils undergo a two months training course similar to that of medical orderlies in the army, for the purpose of carrying out similar duties in the Youth Brigades.
3. The uniform is green-khaki in color, shorts in summer and long trousers in winter; military cap with a Red Cross badge above the middle of the peak, against a white band one and one quarter inches in diameter; open shirt, with epaulettes showing the Red Cross grade of the soldier, officer or NCO.
